WOMEN'S NATIONAL SELECTOR

The Ireland Women's team has recently competed in the ICC T20 World Cup in South Africa and is currently taking part in the International Women's Championship – the top 10 ODI teams in the world over a 3-year period until 2025.

The Women's game in Ireland has changed with the promotion to a Future Tours Programme (FTP) of regular international fixtures and with that the introduction of full-time professional contracts in March 2022.

Cricket Ireland is seeking a Women's National Selector to chair the Women's National Selection panel and help ensure Ireland selects its best players ready to take to the world stage and to be as successful as they can be. The successful candidate will report into the CI High Performance Director.

The position is a part-time paid role for an initial three-year term and will require the candidate to attend Super Series and International matches at home, and up to eight selection meetings annually, which will usually take place in the CI head offices in North Dublin or at a place convenient to the other Selectors.

If this opportunity interests you, please email a cricketing CV and a covering letter detailing why you believe you have the skills and experience to undertake this role to recruitment@cricketireland.ie headed 'National Selector'. The closing date for applications is Monday 17th April, 9am.

Candidates who meet the criteria and are shortlisted will be required to attend an interview.

If you require any further information about the role, you can set up a call with the HP Director – please email richard.holdsworth@cricketireland.ie to arrange this.

JOB DESCRIPTION

WOMEN'S NATIONAL SELECTOR

I. Purpose of the job:

To be responsible for the selection of all Ireland senior women's teams both home and abroad, the selection of the Ireland Performance Squad (IPS) and Ireland Academy/Development Squad, and the recommendation of player contracts annually.

2. Principal Responsibilities:
