NATIONAL WOMEN'S SELECTOR

BACKGROUND

Cricket Ireland is the governing body for the game at both performance and participation levels throughout all-Ireland, representing the interests of both the men's and women's game. The future of Irish Cricket is incredibly bright following the awarding of ICC Full Membership and Test status to Cricket Ireland in 2017.

2020 is a huge year for the Ireland Women's team who will compete in a World Cup Qualifier (WCQ) in July 2020, which will also act as the qualifier for the next ICC Women's Championship 2021-23. The team will also take part in various International tournaments during the year both in preparation for the WCQ and in T20. Ireland Women are currently ranked 10th in the world in both ODI and International T20.

Underpinning the senior team is the Women's Super 3's Series – both 50 over and T20; the Talent Pathway Programme including International Youth teams from under 15 to 19 girls with the latter entering a new ICC U19 World Cup in January 2021; and a women's National Academy Programme.

Cricket Ireland is seeking a new National Women's Selector to help ensure Ireland selects its best players ready to take to the world stage and to be as successful as they can be. The successful candidate will report into the Chair of Selectors.

The position is a voluntary position for an initial two-year term commencing February 2020, and will require the candidate to attend up to eight meetings annually, which will usually take place in the CI head offices in North Dublin or at a place convenient to the other Selectors.

If this opportunity interests you, please email a cricketing CV and a covering letter detailing why you believe you have the skills and experience to undertake this role, to:

recruitment@cricketireland.ie and headed 'Women's National Selector'.

The closing date for applications is 21st February 2020.

Candidates who meet the criteria and are shortlisted will be required to attend an interview.
