

Cricket Ireland is seeking enthusiastic and committed volunteers to contribute to the development of the game as independent members of the Cricket Committee.

The vacancies and experience sought are:

- (a) youth participation and the grassroots game – experience of attracting and developing young players at club level;
- (b) international and inter-provincial cricket – recent playing and/or coaching experience of cricket at either or both levels;
- (c) club cricket – direct experience of the issues currently affecting the development of the club game.

These positions are intended to strengthen the Committee's expertise, allowing for better-informed discussion. Further information on the input sought may be had from the Committee Chairman, Andy Clement, at andyclement@hotmail.com or on +44 (0) 7834 284906.

The Committee will meet a minimum of five times annually, with meetings held early evenings either in Dundalk or North Dublin, with initial appointments for two, three and four years (in order to create one vacancy a year from 2019).

If you are interested, please forward a one-page summary indicating the vacancy in which you are interested and your relevant experience to recruitment@cricketireland.ie including "Cricket Committee" in the subject line of your email. Deadline for applications 20th February 2017.
